

Tyee Superstars for December/January

9th Grade – Vung Sung

nominated by Desiree Robinette

Vung is fast becoming a strong leader in our advisory. She engages with all activities, is inclusive and warm to all her colleagues and gently holds herself and others accountable. She is awesome!

10th Grade – Nicolas Ruiz

nominated by Colleen Pfeilschiefter

Nicolas Ruiz exemplifies the Tyee Cares values of collaborate, achieve, respect, empower and support, as a member of the Tyee yearbook staff. He has been a proactive collaborator by stepping up to photograph many Tyee Sports and events. Doing so has empowered him with the skills to consistently capture excellent action photos that document Tyee student life this year.

11th Grade – Andrea Morales-Martinez

nominated by Desiree Robinette

Andrea has worked diligently to engage in AP language and has grown immensely in the time we have been in class!

12th Grade – Jadelyn Aguilar

nominated by Jim Wiesen

I have asked for Jadelyn's help numerous times and she has always graciously helped, especially with some technology issues we have encountered with the Promethean Board. And when she sees I need help picking up after PE class, she offers to help. I appreciate Jadelyn's help.

Staff - Allen Cent

nominated by Barbara Abbott

Allen shows respect to all the parents he interacts with and advocates for them and their students' needs. He empowers the students he works with by providing them methods to advocate for their needs and supports them by finding alternate methods of communication for those students who struggle to communicate verbally.

Happy Lunar New Year!

Tyee is beyond excited to house the WELS program on our campus.

Any 10th or 11th grade student across Highline Public Schools has an opportunity to join this unique program which focuses on environmental stewardship and community service. Learn more at <https://tyee.highlineschools.org/wels>

The application window for the 2023-24 school year is now open. It closes January 31, 2023 at 11:00 pm.

Tyee will be hosting a WELS information session for students and families next Thursday, January 26th from 6:30-7pm.

IN THE LIBRARY: BOOK REVIEW

Pumpkin Heads

Author: Rainbow Rowell

This book is about Deja and Josiah who go out trying to find a girl named Marcy. My favorite part of this book is when a kid took Deja's apple and he ran away with it. It was a funny part of the book. My least favorite part was reading about Josiah and his struggle to give up looking for his friend. The theme is to not give up even when things get hard. I recommend this book.

Have you read a good book lately? Would you recommend it to a friend?

Students who are interested in reviewing books in the newsletter, please see Mr. Vegar in the Library. There are many new titles to choose from.

WOODSHOP

The woodshop has been making big improvements lately and adding new equipment under the guidance of teacher Brian Hewitt.

VISUAL ART

Visual Art students learned about the Element of Art Shape, Negative Space, and Color Schemes. Then they created artworks drawing only the negative space shapes and applied their color scheme.
